THE POLYNESIAN.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1854.

The Court has gone into mourning for three months, for the death of His late Majesty, King Kamehameha III.

The Funeral of His late Majesty will take place public notice, which will be given hereafter.

At the Privy Council of the 16th, the Ministers of the late King offered their condolence, and placed their respective Port-folios, at the disposal of His present Majesty, King Kamehameha IV. The Members of His Privy Council followed this example. All assured His Majesty of their loyal attachment and faithful Allegiance. It pleased the King to address His Conneil in the following your Father, as I have been your Child. You ral; but the things which are not seen are eternal." "Chiefe-I have become by the Will of God, must help me, for I stand in need of help.

"To you Ministers, and other high officers of State of Our late King, I return my sincere thanks for the expressions of condolence with which you have this morning comforted me. I request of you have allowed me time for reflection, I make such new arrangements as shall seem proper.

"I thanks the Members of this Council, in genassist me with their advice, as though they had been appointed by myself."

Sabbath Services.

The first appearance in public of His present Majesty, King Kamehameha the IVth, was on Sunday last, in the house of God, leading his Sister, her Royal Highness, Princess Victoria, on his left, and followed by the Ministers of the late King. A Sermon was delivered, adapted to the occasion, of which we give the following brief abstract in
